Tie One On & Tell A Story!

by Betty Morgan—Her apron collection consists of over 250 aprons, with some over 100 years old. Many of the aprons are quite unique and have very interesting stories. Some of the stories in her presentation are from her memories of these family aprons.

Tell Me Your Story!

by Gulf Coast Premier Storyteller, Wanda Johnson—"The Living Room" from her debut recording RICH IN LOVE AND MORE FAMILY STORIES won the Storytelling World Honor Award. She is an Alabama Community Scholar for the Alabama Folklife Association. As a Rural Schools Program artist, Wanda performed in elementary, middle, and high schools. Wanda is an Alabama Institute for Education in the Arts (AIEA), DANA Foundation funded, Black Belt Trained Teaching Artist.

Journey to Alabama Women's Hall of Fame

by Alvin Benn—This Alabama Press Association Lifetime Achievement Recipient and longtime friend of Kathryn Tucker Windham launched the campaign to induct Kathryn Tucker Windham into Alabama Women's Hall of Fame. Listen, laugh, and learn as this Pulitzer Prize nominee tells this journey story and more fun stories of his time with our beloved storyteller, Kathryn Tucker Windham.
